The Rushikulya vallley and the surrounding tracts, rich with a glorious background, as revealed by Sri Venkāt Bihari Praharaj, the scholar, has now been neglected both in the spiritual and physical spheres. It is ideal that the glorious past of the valley and the tracts should be brought to the notice of the scholars as well as administrators in order to revive the glory and elevate the region to that of tourist importance of the nation.

MESSAGE

Sri Venkat Bihari Praharaj has taken a lot of pain to study olden scripts to find out the glorious past of the Rushikulya valley in Ganjam District. His labour will be successful if any scholar will take up the matter for a scientific analysis with pre-historic background.
